A fabulous trio in the Ballroom Tregwynt Mansion
Friday August 11th at 8.00pm

Nia Harries, Cello, Neyire Ashworth, clarinet and David Pepper, Piano

Brahms Clarinet Concerto

Beethoven Clarinet Concerto

as well as some little known but beautiful pieces

We are pleased to welcome back Nia Harries.

Nia was a pupil of Jacqueline du Pré for over six years. She went on to study with Steven Isserlis, who revolutionised both her attitude to music and her playing. Her performing career on both modern and baroque cello has taken her all over the world – including the Arctic Circle, New York and performances throughout Europe.

As a chamber musician, Neyire Asworth was a founder member of the Britten-Pears Ensemble with whom she performed throughout Great Britain and in the USA. The Ensemble performed at the Aldeburgh Festival, broadcast on BBC Radio 3, and appeared at Wigmore Hall with the clarinet quartet, No Strings Attached. Neyire's passion for theatre has led her to work as composer, music director and actor for theatre companies including the Royal National Theatre and the RSC.

David Pepper, Pianist

David graduated in music performance in 2010 from Dartington College of Arts and since then has given Recitals in Wales, the wider UK, Germany , Holland , Hungary , Iceland , Turkey and Saudi Arabia. where he focussed on Chamber music, song and contemporary solo piano.

In his areas of work in Music and the Arts, he includes collaboration in the presenting of new ideas in concert performances. These he develops from his base in Pembrokeshire .
